BIOGRAPHY: "Aunt Fern" was an actress. Did stage work in New

Fern Foster was the first wife of silent cowboy star Harry Carey, whom she co-starred with in his play "Two Women and that Man" on Broadway. The play, which opened at the Majestic Theatre on October 18, 1909.

Fern followed Harry into motion pictures, making her film debut in "His Day" (1912). Harry began his evolution into a star, appearing in films for director D. W. Griffith at Biograph, and in 1914, he cast Fern in two movies he wrote and directed for the Progressive Motion Picture Co., The Master Cracksman (1914) and McVeagh of the South Seas (1914).

Fern Foster retired from the movies after making the two pictures with her husband. Harry later divorced Fern and married his co-star in his well known "Cheyenne Harry" Westerns, Olive Golden (Olive Carey), in 1920.

According to Mom (Laura A. Foster - Irving), Fern's complexion was a little dark which made it difficult to film with the old black and white movie film technology of the day. Therefore, she never made it in films.

In correspondence from Harry Carey Jr. Fern and Harry were married for only six years (seems right; 1908-1914). Harry Jr. also said that an actor friend, Wendell Corey, performed in some summer stock performances with Fern Foster. Wendell said she was a very good actress. This indicates that after she left Harry Carey she continued acting, probably as a part time occupation.

Suspect that her first name is Alma, and that Fern is her middle name. Her burial record gives her name as Alma Fern Foster Harms.

There is a 1930 Census record for Chicago, IL which might be the Harms (Harry W. and Fern). That census records Fern's first marriage age being 23, which implies she married Harry Carey in 1908.

The Internet Movie Database (IMDb.com) includes data on Fern Foster and first husband Harry Carey

Notable individual because He was a prolific motion picture character actor.

Born in New York City to a Judge of Special Sessions who was also president of a sewing machine company. Grew up on City Island, New York. Attended Hamilton Military Academy and turned down an appointment to West Point to attend New York University law school.

After a boating accident which led to pneumonia, Carey wrote a play while recuperating and toured the country in it for three years, earning a great deal of money, all of which evaporated after his next play was a failure. But he married his co-star of that failure - Fern Foster. In 1911, his friend Henry B. Walthall introduced him to director D. W. Griffith, for whom Carey was to make many films.

Carey married twice, first to Fern Foster and the second time to actress Olive Fuller Golden (aka Olive Carey).

Carey grew into one of the most popular Western stars of the early motion picture, occasionally writing and directing films as well. In the '30s he moved slowly into character roles and was nominated for an Oscar for one of them, the President of the Senate in Mr. Smith Goes to Washington (1939). He died after a protracted bout with emphysema and cancer. John Ford dedicated his remake of 3 Godfathers (1948) "To Harry Carey--Bright Star Of The Early Western Sky." Harry was a great friend of John Wayne and is said to have taught John his swagger walk. Harry played in over 250 movies in his career.

Refer to <http://www.imdb.com/name/nm0002503/bio> for more information on the career of Harry Carey and his family.

Laura was counted in a census in 1880 in Woburn, Middlesex, MA, USA.

Laura (Evans) Hicks was referred to as Aunt Laura, by Mom (Laura Foster Irving).

"Aunt" was a common way of expressing kinship, but not being rude by using an elder's firstname, or Mrs. [lastname] for a family member which would be too formal.

Laura married William Wilburforce Newton HICKS in 1904. William was born on 27 May 1878. He died on 9 Oct 1960 in Boston, Suffolk, MA, USA. He was buried on 11 Oct 1960 in Woodbrook Cemetery: Woburn, Middlesex, MA, USA.

Husband of Laura Evans. They assisted the Foster's -- Annie and the children (Evans, Lorraine, and Laura) financially after husband/father (Linnell) left home.

I (James Irving) remember visiting Uncle Will at his home a few times with Mom and Phil. He had a large single family home (in either Cambridge or Somerville) with a elephants foot in the front hall used for umbrellas and there were two fencing foils that Phil and I would play with.

Tenth Generation

45. Linnell FOSTER (Willis Hamilton FOSTER, Timothy FOSTER, Eunice JENKINS, Elizabeth WALKER, Eunice BREWSTER, Joseph, William, Love, William) was born on 22 Mar 1871 in Woburn, Middlesex, MA, USA. He died in 1961.

24 Mar 1873 is a birth date I have, but LDS gives 22 March 1871

Linnell married Annie Gertrude PREBLE, daughter of Granville Augustus PREBLE and Sarah Reed KNIGHT, on 4 Oct 1893 in Everett, Middlesex, MA, USA. Annie was born on 27 Feb 1874 in Somerville, Middlesex, MA, USA. She died on 23 Nov 1960 in Ashland, Middlesex, MA, USA. She was counted in a census in 1930 in Belmont, Middlesex, MA, USA.

Sometime between the 1920 and 1930 census, husband Linnell has left the family. Annie converted to Christian Scientist church.

I (James Irving) remember Grandma Foster. She would take the bus out to Natick (usually on a Saturday) and stop at the butcher shop in Natick to get fresh oysters. We would watch for her walking up West Central Street and when we saw her coming Mom would start heating the milk to make oyster stew for lunch. She probably did the same after we moved to Park Ave, but I remember her walking up West Central St. not Park Ave. We moved to Park Ave when I was in the 2nd grade so I am impressed I still have that memory. I think only Mom, Me, and Grandma liked oyster stew. Although I do remember that the Union Oyster House in Boston was one of Aunt Lorraine's favorites. On some visits to Boston with her we would make a point to go there for lunch.

Grandma had a crippled hand (don't remember which) that Mom said was due to someone tried to steal her purse but she wouldn't let go and fought off the purse snatcher. Mom (Laura Foster) believed that because she had converted to Christian Scientist she refused to go to a doctor to have the hand looked at. The result was that she had very little use of that hand and it was deformed.
