July 21, 1995

WILLIAMS. Fay Woodburn ``Woody" Williams, 69, of 245 Carriage Way, Windsor, died Thursday (July 20, 1995) at Hartford Hospital. Born and raised in Springfield, Mass., he was the son of the late Fay Woodburn Williams and Marian (Quimby) Williams, graduated New York Military Academy, and served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. After his discharge, he graduated Suffield Academy and Western New England College with a degree in Law. Following college, he joined his father in property management in the Springfield, Mass., area. In 1973 he moved to Windsor and started the Taylor Rental Franchise which expanded to include the present Windsor Tru- Value Hardware Store, and moved it to its present location on Broad Street. An avid golfer and horseman, he had owned thoroughbred race horses. He was a life member of Raymond B. McHugh Post No. 4740 VFW, was a former member of the Masonic Order, and the Windsor Lodge of Elks. He leaves two sons, Stephen J. of South Windsor, and Scott H. of Windsor Locks; two daughters, Sandra A. Rosol, and Susan F. Plante, both of Windsor; six grandchildren, Sean, Ashley, Amber, and Aaron Williams, Amanda Plante, and Megan Rosol; a dear, special friend, Linda Morse; many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased this past April by his sister, Mary Ann Foster. His family will receive friends, Sunday, 3-4:30 p.m., at the Carmon Windsor Funeral Home, 807 Bloomfield Ave., followed by a gathering of remembrances, 4:30 p.m. Committal services will be Monday, 11 a.m., in Longmeadow Cemetery, Longmeadow, Mass. Contributions may be made to either FIDELCO, or the Wilson Volunteer Fire Co.
